About the Promoter's Society

The AANM & VVRSR Promoter Society, founded in 1981 by visionaries late Sri Adusumilli Aswardha Narayana Murthy and late Sri Vallurupalli Venkata Rama Seshadri Rao, has played a pivotal role in making technical education accessible to rural youth. The society's mission is to promote technical, engineering, and general education, which has been fulfilled through the establishment of several institutions:

1. AANM & VVRSR Polytechnic (1981)
2. AANM & VVRSR Public School (1988)
3. Seshadri Rao Gudlavalleru Engineering College (1998)
4. Vallabhaneni Venkatadri Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences (2009)

These institutions have experienced remarkable growth, providing high-quality education to thousands of students and significantly impacting education in the region.

Seshadri Rao Gudlavalleru Engineering College, located in Gudlavalleru, Krishna District, Andhra Pradesh, is situated on the Gudivada-Machilipatnam route. It is well-connected by road and rail to nearby cities like Vijayawada (55 km), Machilipatnam (26 km), and Gudivada (8 km), as well as to distant places like Hyderabad, Visakhapatnam, Tirupati, Chennai, Bengaluru, Puri, Bilaspur, and Jagdalpur.
